OFFICIAL LETTER OF INCLUSION FOR JASMINE ISDRAKE

Dear Jasmine Isdrake

It's been an honor to show your work as part The Affordable Art Fair

Your work was on view on March 27th – 31st, 2019 at the:

The Affordable Art Fair
Metropolitan Pavilion
125 West 18th Street
New York, NY 10011 USA

Without question, the act of creation has always been a historical marker; a civilization's culture is judged first and foremost by the art left behind. Just as archaeologists offer hypotheses about ancient societies based on cave paintings, historians of the future will base their conjectures about us on the contemporary art that is happening at this very moment.

As technology makes our world more interconnected, the act of creation has become a universal language and a vital conversation. Your art represented at the annual Affordable Art Fair is a thrilling contribution to that dialogue.

Thank you for sharing your talent with us and with the world.

Sincerely,

Brendan Burns
CEO of See.Me
